THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON HEALTH AND DOMESTIC VIOLENCE features the most innovative practices and the latest research in the field of health and domestic & sexual violence.

Focused on the intersections of health and domestic and sexual violence, the 9th Biennial National Conference on Health and Domestic Violence will bring together the nation’s leading medical, public health and family violence experts from across the U.S. with increased international participation.

Workshops, scientific posters, keynote and plenary sessions highlight the latest research and most innovative clinical responses to domestic violence, with a focus on the work being done by domestic/sexual violence advocates, health care providers and health administrators, behavioral health providers, social workers, policy and public health leaders, researchers, students and others.

Your support makes this conference happen! Thank you for your contribution to conference scholarships, events and more.
